Agroecological Transition and Resilience
8 May – 11h30-12h30
Amphi Pasteur

Convenors: Michel Etienne and Danièle Magda

Program Session

11h30- 11h35 Welcome and Introduction

11h35-11h45 Anne Mérot
Exploring multi-scale flexibility to design resilient cropping systems

11h45- 11h55 Marcos Easdale
Sustainable livelihood approach from the lens of the state-and-transition model: an integrated model for social-ecological research and management

11h55-12h05 Federica Ravera
Assessing vulnerability of agri-food systems to climate and policy changes: proposal of an integrated framework

12h05-12h15 Ika Darnhofer
Managing the trade-offs between factors that strengthen resilience

12h15-12h25 Hallie Eakin
Capacities, institutions and development trajectories affecting the transformation of irrigated agriculture in the urbanizing SW United states

12h25- 12h30 Conclusions